ROOTIN' FOR A "500" VICTORY FOR TORRANCES' OWN... PARNELLI JONES!

PARNELLI JONES

Well known as the name Parnelli Jones is to stock and sprint car race fans it might be in the headlines after the checkered flag waves down the winning car in the Indianapolis Memorial Day 500-mile race next Tuesday.

This opinion is not only that of the Torrance driver's grandstand admirers, but that also of Walt James, California Racing Assn. president, who qualifies himself by saying, "This boy (Parnelli Jones) has got a real good chance to win the Indy race Tuesday. He is a brilliant driver in a good car. He is track wise and paces himself well."

DRIVING an Agajanian-Willard Battery Special, Jones qualified at 146.080 miles per hour and will be in the center of the second row, flanked by Rodger Ward and Jimmy Rathmann when the race gets under way.

With the fastest qualifying time in 50 years the drivers include 25 veterans and eight rookies. Eddie Sachs won the pole position with his 147 mph time. The previous record was 144.070 and Rathmann was the 1960 winner.

RARIN' TO GO . . . Parnelli Jones gets feel of the Agajanian Special as he prepares for Tuesday's classic "500" in Indianapolis. Checking him out are J. C. Agajanian (left) race promoter and owner of the car, and Sam Hanks, popular race driver for many years, now an official at the Indianapolis Speedway. Parnelli will start from the middle of the second row Tuesday, and will have Torrance rooting for a win.
